S.B. Civil Writ Petition NO.1891/2005
Narendra Menaria
vs
State of Rajasthan & Ors.

DATE OF ORDER : - 20.4.2005.

HON'BLE MR. PRAKASH TATIA,J.

Mr.Pushpendra Singh, for the petitioner.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the revisional authority vide order dated 24.2.2005 after setting aside the order of the District Collector, Chittorgarh remanded the matter to the learned District Collector, Chitorgarh for deciding the matter afresh. It will be relevant to mention here that petitioner's licence for fair-price shop was cancelled by the order of the District Collector dated 29.2.2004, which was challenged by the petitioner by filing revision petition in which remand order was passed.

According to learned counsel for the petitioner, the District Collector has not decided the matter afresh after the order of remand. It appears from the order Annex.10 that the remand order was passed only on 24.2.2005, therefore, it appears that no much time has passed after the remand order. However, the petitioner may submit an application before the District Collector to decide the matter expeditiously.

With this liberty, the writ petition of the petitioner is disposed of.

(Prakash Tatia), J.
